

Gavrielides, T. (2021). Power, Race & Justice: The restorative dialogue we won't have. Abingdon: Routledge.

ISBN 978-1-4724-8835-0

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword: Professor John Braithwaite, Australian National University, Australia
Preface: Kay Pranis, independent trainer and facilitator for peacemaking circles, leader in Restorative Justice and Circle Process movements

Introduction & Acknowledgements: Theo Gavrielides

PART I: POWER, RACE, JUSTICE & RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CHALLENGED: THE BEGINNING OF AWAKENING

- Chapter 1: Challenging the power that racialises us all
Chapter 2: Challenging race: Let's talk about race, when we talk about race
Chapter 3: Challenging justice: The lawful and the fair
Chapter 4: Challenging restorative justice: A painful biopower

PART II: REBALANCING POWER FOR JUSTICE: MERMAIDS AND SIRENS

- Chapter 5: Faultlines, mermaids and sirens: Power-interest battles within the restorative justice social movement
Chapter 6: The Trojan horses of race and power
Chapter 7: Power, fear and security: The terrorist within

PART III: RESTORING PEACE: BACK ON TRACK

- Chapter 8: The fallacy of one justice and a consensual justice model restrained by human rights
Chapter 9: Restoring power in justice and restorative justice: What parties in conflict really want
Chapter 10: Restorative justice policy and practice: A guide free from power abuse

PART IV: CASE STUDIES OF POWER AND RESTORATION: POSSIBILITIES IN ACTION

Preamble

Theo Gavrielides

Case study no 1: Power and child sexual abuse – England

Ben Lyon, Restorative justice senior practitioner, Chair of the RJ4All International Institute

Case study no 2: Power through bullying - England

Brenda Smith, Restorative Justice Facilitator, Chilton Trinity Technology College, Somerset

Case study no 3: Power through rape - Denmark

Karin Sten Madsen, restorative justice practitioner

Case study no 4: Power through race - USA

Dr. David R. Karp, Professor of Sociology, Skidmore College, USA

Case study no 7: The power of taking life, the power of owning restorative justice- USA

Margot Van Sluytman, USA

Case study no 8: Four restorative practices in Queensland, Australia

Steve Brady, Restorative Justice and Trauma Recovery Advocate, Australia

Case study no 9: Parental power and culture

Taufik Mohammad and Nur Atikah Mohamed Hussin School of Social Sciences, University Sains Malaysia

Case study no 10: The “powerful” victim paedophile - USA

Todd Nickerson, USA

Case study 11: Race, gender and power - USA

Lorren Walker, Director, Hawai'i Friends of Restorative Justice Honolulu, Hawaii, USA

Case study 12: Power in family relationships - Greece

Afroditi Mallouchou, Social Worker - Juvenile Probation Officer and Christina Moutsopoulou, Psychologist, Greece

Case study 13: The power of protecting my turf - Greece

Afroditi Mallouchou, Social Worker - Juvenile Probation Officer and Christina Moutsopoulou, Psychologist, Greece

Case study no 14: Power in whiteness - England

Sughra Bibi, Restorative Justice Officer, Oxfordshire Youth Justice Service, England

Case Study 15: Race, gender and family relationships - USA

Penelope Griffith, Executive Director, Collaborative Solutions for Communities Washington, DC, USA

Case Study 16: Regaining power through forgiveness - USA

Penelope Griffith, Executive Director, Collaborative Solutions for Communities Washington, DC, USA

Case Study 17: Power imbalance in juvenile justice delivery: My experience as a prison social worker - Nigeria

Chiemezie, Emmanuel Amaka, Retired Controller of Corrections, former Head of Custody at the National Headquarters, Abuja Nigeria.

Case Study 18: Power and policing - USA

Shadeequa Smith, Research Associate at the RJ4All International Institute, UK and Workshop Facilitator at Amplify RJ, USA

Case Study 19: Power and child sexualisation – Lithuania

Juozas Kelecus, Project Officer at the RJ4All International Institute, UK, UK

Case Study 20: Power imbalance and intimate partner violence – India

Sajith Mohmad Saleem, Criminologist, National Human Rights Commission, India.

Case Study 21: Sun, sea, sex and the new forms of slavery

Daniel Briggs, Antonio Silva Esquinas, Dr Jorge Ramiro Pérez Suárez, Dr Rebeca Cordero Verdugo, Universidad Europea, Spain

Case Study 22: Climate change, power abuses and the plight of refugees

Dr Daniel Briggs, Universidad Europea, Spain

Case Study 23: Digital enslavement, online dating apps and abuse

Antonio Silva Esquinas, Dr Daniel Briggs, Dr Jorge Ramiro Pérez Suárez, Dr Rebeca Cordero Verdugo, Spain

Case study 24: Power Abuse of Queer, Indigenous and Racialized youth in the Global North

Tara Sheppard-Luangkhot, MMFT, Tara Sheppard Therapy & Conflict Resolution Services, Winnipeg, Canada and Intern at the RJ4All International Institute

Case Study 25: English Nationalism: Deindustrialisation and Powerlessness.

Luke Telford, Lecturer in Criminology, Staffordshire University,

Author's biography

Index

Back cover – selected endorsements

DRAFT - NOT TO BE CIRCULATED